

What do you do now?

THE INSTITUTE OF CHARTERED
ACCOUNTANTS
OF SCOTLAND

How often do we ask ourselves “what should I do”? This new ICAS report collates 28 true-life ethical dilemmas faced by chartered accountants either in practice or business. The objective of the report and this discussion event is to bring relevant ethical issues to life and to promote further debate on ethics within the profession.

Donald Main, Chair

Speaker:

Dr David Molyneux
University of Aberdeen

Panel Members:

Richard George
Chair of the International
Ethics Standards Board for
Accountants

Anton Colella
Chief Executive
The Institute of Chartered
Accountants of Scotland

Monday 12 May 2008

Registration from 5pm

Presentation and discussion: 5.30pm to 7pm

Drinks reception from 7pm

Location: CA House, 21 Haymarket Yards, Edinburgh EH12 5BH

The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland (ICAS) present this discussion event to encourage debate on ethics within the profession.

The event will be chaired by Donald Main, Convenor of the ICAS Ethics Committee, and will commence with a presentation by Dr David Molyneaux, discussing his ICAS research publication “What do you do now? – Ethical Issues Encountered by Chartered Accountants”.

This will be followed by a panel discussion and questions from the audience. Richard George, the Chairman of the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants, will be a member of the discussion panel.

Registration will be available from 5pm and a drinks reception will conclude the event at 7 – 8pm.

There is no charge for attendance. However, as numbers are limited, places must be booked in advance and will be allocated on a first come, first served basis.

To register please contact Margaret Bavidge
(mbavidge@icas.org.uk)

Supplying your name, organisation and contact details.

